Description

Built to conquer the roughest trails with power, stability, and confidence, the ZFORCE 950 Sport delivers big performance in a two-seat platform. With a 963cc V-Twin producing 83 hp, dual power modes, and a ride-by-wire throttle, you get responsive, controllable muscle in any terrain. The sport-tuned suspension, 60" stance, and CST Stag tires keep you planted and composed, while 12 inches of ground clearance gives you the freedom to choose your own line. Add in standard power steering, LED lighting, and premium storage—and you've got a machine ready for anything from aggressive day rides to all-out weekend adventures.
