2026 H&H Trailers 3K 78X12 Low Side Aluminum Utility Trailer

Why Choose an H&H Aluminum Low Side Utility Trailer?

Overview

Designed for versatility, H&H Aluminum Low Side Utility Trailers are an outstanding choice for everyday hauling needs. Whether you're transporting lawn equipment, motorcycles, or DIY supplies, this small utility trailer offers premium performance in a lightweight frame. With a sleek aluminum build and thoughtfully engineered features, it's ready to take on your toughest jobs.

Available Models

The Aluminum Low Side Utility Trailer series is available in three lengths to fit a range of hauling needs. Choose the size that best matches your cargo, with each model delivering the strength and durability that H&H Trailers is known for.

Standard Features

Every Aluminum Low Side Utility Trailer comes equipped with a heavy-duty bi-fold rear ramp for easy loading, an extruded aluminum deck for rugged floor strength, and a torsion axle for better towing performance. Four recessed D-rings are mounted in the deck to give you flexible options for securing your cargo safely. Aluminum wheels, LED lighting, a full aluminum frame, and sleek aluminum fenders round out the premium standard package.

Options

Customize your trailer with available upgrades like spare mount, spare tire, wheel chocks, and recessed d-rings to suit specific hauling tasks and add peace of mind. Whether you need enhanced cargo control or other upgrades, H&H makes it easy to tailor your small utility trailer exactly the way you need it.
