Description

Ready to haul serious weight without breaking a sweat? This 2026 Winston 10 Ton Pro Series deck over trailer gives you a full 102" wide, 30-foot working surface (25 feet of flat deck plus a 5-foot spring-assist fold-up dovetail) built on an I-beam frame with Dexter axles for the kind of durability contractors and equipment haulers depend on. With a 25,980 lb GVWR and 18,995 lbs of payload capacity, this trailer is sized to move skid steers, tractors, and heavy equipment with room to spare. Electric brakes on both axles and dual 12K two-speed jacks make loading, unloading, and towing straightforward, while the PPG paint finish, LED lighting, and rub rails with stake pockets keep it protected and job-site ready for years to come. Listed at $19,999 MSRP with a sale price of $19,200, this is a well-equipped deck over at a strong value.
