Description

This 2027 HTC 5x10 steel utility trailer is built with the kind of hardware upgrades that make daily use easier, starting with a spring-assist gate that lifts and lowers with minimal effort — no wrestling a heavy tailgate at the end of a long day. The 120 in x 60 in wood deck sits on a steel C-channel frame with a tube rail perimeter, and flat hook pockets plus S-hook holes along the rails give you multiple tie-down options depending on what you're hauling. E-track accessory slots add another layer of flexibility for securing tools, equipment, or cargo boxes. At a 2,990 lb GVWR with a 2,160 lb payload capacity, this compact 5x10 punches above its size, and EZ lube hubs make routine bearing maintenance quick and mess-free. The powder-coated finish resists corrosion and keeps the trailer looking sharp season after season, while radial tires and a setback tongue jack round out a well-thought-out feature set. LED lighting, a 2 in coupler, and an A-frame tongue complete the package. Weighing just 830 lbs, this black HTC trailer tows easily behind smaller trucks and SUVs and is priced at $2,399.
