Description

XE Series Car Hauler Trailer
The XE Series Car Hauler Trailer is a high-performance enclosed car trailer built for dependable transport and long-term durability. Designed for both recreational and commercial users, this enclosed trailer offers smart airflow, reinforced tie-down points, and a rugged, weather-resistant finish that’s ready for the road.
Key Benefits
Side Wall Air Flow Vents — Improved Interior Circulation
Keeps your enclosed car trailer cooler by promoting consistent airflow during transport.BattleCoat Polyurea Textured Coating on Exposed Steel Surfaces — Built-In Protection
Shields tongue rails, rear corner posts, and the interior fender wells of your car hauler trailer from corrosion, impact, and harsh road conditions.Color Matching Screws on Seams — Sleek Appearance
Color matching screws on the seams and a VHB-bonded field enhances the exterior looks of your trailer.Beavertail and Four Heavy-Duty, Recessed D-Rings — Ready for Loading and Securing Makes it easy to load low-clearance vehicles and safely secure them with reliable tie-down points.
Why Choose the XE Series Car Hauler Trailer?
Designed to Perform
The XE Series Car Hauler Trailer is built for drivers, dealers, and professionals who need dependable vehicle transport without compromise. This enclosed trailer combines strength, function, and aesthetics in a sleek, durable package designed for real-world use. Whether you’re hauling a prized collector car or a daily driver, the XE Series is engineered to handle the job.Smart Ventilation, Strong Features
Every XE Series enclosed car trailer includes side wall air flow vents for better interior climate control, reducing heat buildup and humidity during transit. On the outside, color-matched seams and VHB bonding give this trailer a clean, smooth appearance while enhancing durability and weather resistance. A beavertail ramp design ensures easier loading, especially for low-clearance cars.Ready to Secure Your Investment
Inside, the XE Series comes standard with four heavy-duty recessed D-rings, providing rock-solid anchor points for any vehicle you need to haul. Combined with a tough steel frame and BattleCoat polyurea coating on all exposed surfaces, this car hauler trailer is built to withstand road abuse and keep working trip after trip.Dependable for Every Trip
Whether you’re hauling to a car show, a customer, or your next jobsite, the XE Series enclosed trailer is designed to deliver confidence. It's a smart choice for professionals and hobbyists alike who need security, appearance, and rugged reliability all in one enclosed car trailer.
