The Black Rhino LS Series is designed for those who demand more from their aluminum utility trailer. Featuring a 14-inch side rail for maximum security and versatile tie-down points, the LS Series keeps your cargo locked in and ready for the road. Whether you're hauling equipment, tools, or powersports toys, this trailer is built to handle the load. Designed with an aggressive A-frame, all-aluminum construction, and expert welding, the LS Series delivers unmatched strength, durability, and corrosion resistance. The heavy-duty rear gate, available with an optional left/right split design or bi-fold, makes loading and unloading effortless—whether you're on the job site or gearing up for the weekend.

Perfect for contractors, landscapers, and business owners who need a rugged, lightweight, and reliable aluminum trailer, the LS Series is engineered to protect your investment and perform day in, day out.

If you’re searching for the best aluminum utility trailer that combines toughness, functionality, and superior craftsmanship, the Black Rhino LS Series is ready to haul.
