Description

Imagine working in the canopy with a chainsaw that responds effortlessly to every movement, giving you the confidence to make precise cuts in demanding conditions. The STIHL MS 201 T C-M 14" is a professional top-handle chainsaw built specifically for arborists, combining an exceptional power-to-weight ratio with STIHL M-Tronic™ engine management that automatically adjusts for optimal performance. The result is smooth power delivery, reliable starting, and consistent cutting performance wherever the job takes you.

Lightweight, agile, and engineered for all-day productivity, the MS 201 T C-M helps reduce fatigue while maximizing control and precision. Its advanced anti-vibration system, fuel-efficient engine, and professional-grade construction create a cutting experience that feels balanced, efficient, and dependable, helping you stay focused, work confidently, and achieve professional results with every cut.
