When you need serious hauling capacity and a trailer built to work, the 2025 Big Tex Trailers Model 16G is ready for the job. This 102" x 40' Gooseneck Deckover provides an expansive loading platform and the durability needed for hauling equipment, machinery, vehicles, and materials. This trailer is equipped with two 8,000 lb axles and features a dovetail design with Monster Ramps, making loading and unloading equipment easier and more convenient. The wide 102" deck gives you plenty of room to position your load, while the 40' length provides the space needed for larger equipment and heavier hauling applications.

This unit also includes chains and binders, giving you the essential equipment needed to properly secure your load and get to work.
