Description

Indigo DLX Car Hauler Trailer

The Indigo DLX Car Hauler Trailer blends premium features with everyday reliability to create a car hauler trailer that's ready for serious transport. Designed to impress with sleek exterior details and loaded with functionality, this enclosed car trailer offers long-haul durability and everyday usability for car collectors, racers, and transport professionals.

Key Benefits

Triple Tube Tongue — Extra Stability

A triple tube tongue design enhances frame strength for added towing confidence during long hauls.

Automotive Undercoat — All-Season Protection

The automotive-style undercoating shields the underside from moisture, salt, and debris for longer trailer life.

Color Matching Screws on Exterior Seams — Clean Appearance

Screws painted to match the exterior panels help create a seamless, finished look that stands out on the road.

Beavertail and Recessed D-Rings — Built for Easy Loading

A built-in beavertail and flush-mounted D-rings make loading and securing vehicles smoother and faster.

Why Choose a Compass Indigo DLX Car Hauler Trailer?

Overview

The Indigo DLX Car Hauler Trailer is engineered for those who demand more from their enclosed trailer. Whether you're hauling classic cars, race vehicles, or performance builds, the Indigo DLX is designed to keep your cargo protected and secure while projecting a professional, streamlined image on the outside. From structural integrity to visual refinement, every element is built for purpose and style.

Applications
This enclosed car trailer is ideal for car enthusiasts, professional haulers, motorsports teams, and restoration experts. The spacious, enclosed design protects valuable vehicles from road grime and weather, while the low-profile loading features ensure you can move in and out efficiently.

Recessed D-rings and thoughtful design touches make it ideal for repeated use in demanding environments.

Key Features

In addition to its strong triple tube tongue, the Indigo DLX features a rugged automotive undercoat to resist rust and corrosion beneath the frame. Its exterior panels are secured with color-matched fasteners that enhance the trailer's cohesive look. Inside, recessed tie-downs and a sloped beavertail floor make this trailer easy to work with, whether you're securing a single classic car or multiple show vehicles.

Owner Experience

From the first hitch to the final unload, the Indigo DLX provides a reliable, stress-free experience. It tows true, looks sharp on the road, and handles vehicle transport with ease. For those who treat their car hauling with the same care they give their vehicles, this trailer delivers both function and pride of ownership.
