OVERVIEW

Why Choose a Sure-Trac Steel Deck Car Hauler Trailer?
Durable Steel Deck
Renowned for its exceptional durability, the Sure-Trac Steel Deck Car Hauler features a full-seamed welded steel deck that not only enhances its robust appearance but also ensures long-lasting performance. The sleek design is further complemented by aluminum wheels, adding a touch of sophistication that makes this trailer stand out on the road or at the track.
Easy Vehicle Loading
Designed with a 4-foot beavertail and equipped with 5-foot slide-in ramps, this trailer offers the most suitable loading angle for easy access. This thoughtful design makes loading and unloading vehicles seamless, even for low-clearance models, allowing you to quickly prepare for your next adventure or event.
Structural Integrity
Constructed with all-tube framing, the Steel Deck Car Hauler provides added structural integrity, ensuring a reliable towing experience. This sturdy build can withstand the demands of frequent use, making it an excellent investment for car enthusiasts and professionals alike. You can load your vehicles with confidence, knowing the trailer is engineered to handle various loads safely.
Style Meets Performance
The Steel Deck Car Hauler is a stylish and strong choice for anyone in need of a reliable hauling solution. Experience the perfect blend of exceptional durability, sleek design, and practical features, ensuring that your vehicles are transported safely and with flair, all while making a statement wherever you go.
