Description

BEAR TRACK BTU80168P – 80" x 168" ALUMINUM UTILITY TRAILER

Built for durability, versatility, and dependable performance, the Bear Track BTU80168P features a lightweight, all-aluminum frame paired with rugged polypropylene decking that won't rot, splinter, or deteriorate like traditional wood. Its spacious 14-foot deck, low-profile design, and convenient fold-flat rear loading ramp make transporting lawn equipment, ATVs, golf carts, building materials, and other cargo easy and efficient. The durable polypropylene deck provides excellent traction while allowing dirt and water to drain away, delivering long-lasting performance for both work and recreation.
