Description

Emergency Operational Command is critical to any tense situation - managing media, personnel, communications. Doing so in a well-equipped trailer set up for the ever-changing technology today, is the key to stretching your agency's funding & being fiscally responsible to your tax payers.
This 42' gooseneck features a front conference room with opposing slide outs & conference table, middle workstations & dry galley, and rear communications & dispatch center. Boasting a rooftop observation deck for scene outlook, drone landing & operations and access to the roofline for future mast connections.
