Description

The Iron Bull DWB Dump Trailer is a powerhouse of durability and efficiency. It comes equipped with a robust 8" monoframe I-beam construction and heavy-duty 7-gauge steel flooring, making it more than capable of handling demanding loads with ease. While it's 2 inches shorter than our DTB model, the DWB is built with the same rugged, performance-driven user in mind. Designed for those who demand strength and simplicity, the DWB is available in standard configurations only, but don't let that fool you—it's packed with all the essential features you need!
