2027 Rock Solid Cargo 8.5x20 Tandem Axle Enclosed Car Hauler

The 2027 Rock Solid Cargo 8.5x20 Tandem Axle Enclosed Car Hauler is built for racers, automotive enthusiasts, contractors, and commercial users who demand dependable performance and premium construction. Finished in a sleek Gray aluminum exterior, this enclosed trailer provides outstanding protection for race cars, classic cars, motorcycles, UTVs, golf carts, and valuable equipment while delivering a clean, professional appearance.

Featuring an 8.5-foot-wide body, 20-foot cargo area, and 7-foot interior height, this trailer offers generous interior space for vehicles, tools, spare tires, and equipment. The aerodynamic V-nose design improves towing efficiency while creating additional front storage space, making it an excellent choice for weekend racers, businesses, and everyday hauling.

Built with a 9,990 lb GVWR and an impressive 6,790 lb payload capacity, this trailer rides on tandem 5,200 lb electric brake axles for smooth towing, dependable braking, and excellent highway stability. Premium construction includes a heavy-duty steel frame, aluminum exterior skin, heavy-duty rear spring-assisted ramp door, (4) recessed floor D-rings, 36-inch RV-style side door with flush lock, diamond plate fenderettes, LED lighting, manual top-wind jack, 2-5/16-inch coupler, and a breakaway safety system for dependable performance on every trip.

The versatile 8.5x20 layout also provides an excellent foundation for customization. Available upgrades include Blackout packages, escape doors, rear spoilers with LED loading lights, E-Track systems, interior cabinets, electrical packages, winch packages, and additional storage options to create the perfect enclosed trailer for your specific hauling needs.

Whether you're searching for an 8.5x20 enclosed car hauler, Rock Solid Cargo trailer, race trailer, vehicle trailer, motorcycle trailer, contractor trailer, or commercial enclosed trailer, this 2027 Rock Solid Cargo 8.5x20 TA Car Hauler delivers exceptional durability, premium construction, and long-lasting value.
