2027 Down 2 Earth Trailers 6x12 Tandem Axle Low Side Dump Trailer E-Series

The 2027 Down 2 Earth Trailers 6x12 Tandem Axle Low Side Dump Trailer E-Series is designed for homeowners, landscapers, small contractors, and property owners who need an affordable, dependable hydraulic dump trailer for everyday hauling. Finished in a durable black powder-coated steel finish, this compact dump trailer is perfect for transporting dirt, gravel, mulch, firewood, brush, landscaping materials, and light construction debris. Its 6-foot-wide bed, 12-foot length, and 24-inch steel sides provide excellent versatility while remaining easy to tow and maneuver.

Powered by a single hydraulic lift cylinder with a power-up/gravity-down hydraulic system, this trailer delivers reliable dumping performance for residential and light commercial applications. Built with a 7,000 lb GVWR, it rides on tandem 3,500 lb E-Z Lube electric brake axles for dependable towing, smooth operation, and easy maintenance. The barn-style rear doors allow quick unloading of bulk materials while maintaining a simple, durable design.

Premium equipment includes a lockable powder-coated tongue box for the hydraulic pump and battery, 12V onboard battery charger, 2,000 lb A-frame jack, adjustable 2-5/16-inch coupler, stake pockets, tread plate steel fenders, spare tire mount, sealed wiring harness, breakaway safety kit, DOT reflective tape, all LED lighting, and a tarp kit. Every component is engineered to provide dependable service while minimizing maintenance.

The versatile 6x12 layout is ideal for hauling mulch, gravel, sand, topsoil, firewood, brush, landscaping materials, and light demolition debris. Its compact footprint makes it an excellent choice for homeowners, farms, small businesses, rental fleets, and contractors who need a dependable trailer that fits easily into tight job sites and residential driveways.

Whether you're searching for a 6x12 dump trailer, Down 2 Earth dump trailer, 7K dump trailer, compact hydraulic dump trailer, landscape dump trailer, residential dump trailer, or light-duty commercial dump trailer, this 2027 Down 2 Earth 6x12 TA-LS E-Series delivers dependable performance, durable construction, and outstanding value.
