Description

This 2025 Pace American Journey SE 6 x 12 ft motorcycle trailer is purpose-built for hauling a bike with minimal fuss. A ramp door makes loading straightforward, and the removable wheel chock keeps your motorcycle secure in transit without permanent hardware in the way. Aluminum wheels and radial tires ride smoothly, and spring suspension keeps the trailer stable on the road. Salem two-way vents help manage airflow inside, and the RV locking side door adds secure, convenient access.

With 78 inches of interior height, there's plenty of clearance for standing bikes upright with taller windshields or accessories, and a one-piece roof keeps moisture out. Four D-rings give you solid tie-down points. With a 2,990 lb GVWR, this single-axle trailer is an easy tow behind most vehicles. Finished in White, this Pace American Journey SE is priced at $5,999.
