Description

Compact, reliable, and built to perform — the F?TRA7212?030 delivers Formula’s trusted quality in a versatile 6' × 12' package. With a single 3,500 lb axle, and reinforced aluminum construction, it’s engineered to handle tools, equipment, or recreational gear with ease. The flat?top V?nose design improves aerodynamics, while screwless aluminum panels, LED lighting, and a spring?assisted ramp door make loading and hauling simple and secure. Whether for contractors, small business owners, or weekend adventurers, this Triumph series trailer combines durability, safety, and everyday convenience.
